OVERVIEW

The DIFC Laws Certificate aims to provide education and training that will equip legal practitioners with the necessary knowledge and skills to support their practice in the hybrid UAE legal system. The course covers the relevant areas of common law; the foundation of the DIFC legal system; DIFC laws and DIFC Courts procedures; advocacy and legal drafting legal tech and tax law.

This programme will prepare lawyers in the Middle East for international commercial law practice and provide legal education with global value by cross training learners in multiple legal systems with a focus on DIFC Laws.

The programme comprises of the following modules:

- English Common Law, Basic Advocacy and Legal Drafting | 36 hours
- Legal Tech | 10 hours
- Tax Law | 6 hours
- ADR & Arbitration | 8 hours
Developed and delivered by Middlesex University Dubai, Department of Law and Politics.
- DIFC Laws & Courts Procedure | 30 hours
Developed and delivered by DIFC Legal Practitioners
- Advanced Advocacy | 24 hours
Developed and delivered by Outer Temple Chambers, London based Chambers.
- Cryptocurrency and Dispute Resolution | 6 hours
Developed and delivered by KBH

LEARNING OUTCOMES

On completion of the programme, participants should be able to:

- Understand and explain the operation of the English legal system
- Demonstrate a knowledge of areas of substantive English common law such as contract law; tort; company law; law of agency; land law; law of trusts; employment law and arbitration
- Demonstrate knowledge of DIFC laws and Courts procedures, particularly company and insolvency; trust and foundations; employment; real property and arbitration

Upon completion of the course, participants will have acquired several skills relevant and necessary to practicing law within the DIFC and to exercising rights of audience before

- the DIFC Courts, enabling them to:
Research, evaluate and retrieve information from a variety of sources
- Analyse, synthesise and apply the law in common law settings
- Draft legal documents in common law settings
- Make oral submissions in common law settings

Mode of Delivery:

The course will be delivered through a blend of online, hybrid and in-person* sessions.

*The in-person sessions will be broadcasted live through MS Teams.

STRUCTURE

The course consists of a number of modules ("units") that can be taken together as a whole to qualify for the DIFC Laws Certificate of completion or as individual components that will warrant individual certificates of completion per module. The units are as follows:

Unit 1 Common Law: ELS Principles of Common Law; Contract Law; Tort Law; Company Law; Employment Law; ADR, Arbitration; Data Protection Law; and Equity Law.

Unit 2 DIFC Laws and Courts Procedure: Overview and Introduction; Basic DIFC Laws; Basic DIFC Procedures; DIFC Company Law and DIFC Insolvency Law; DIFC Arbitration; DIFC Employment Law; DIFC Data Protection Law; DIFC Trust Law

Unit 3 Advocacy Skills: Court Etiquette; Advocacy Basics; Trial Advocacy and witness handling and examination; Oral Submissions and Appeal Advocacy; Written and Oral Appeal Advocacy

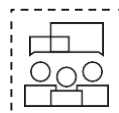

Unit 4 Legal Drafting: Legal Drafting Basics; Legal Drafting Advanced

Unit 5 Legal Tech: Legal Technology Foundations

Unit 6 Tax: UAE Tax Law; Applications of tax legislation; Implications of tax legislation for legal practitioners

Unit 7 ADR & Arbitration: Overview of ADR, Mediation; International Arbitration; Arbitration in the UAE

Unit 8 Cryptocurrency and Dispute Resolution: Overview of regulatory regime for crypto and issues arising in litigation

ASSESSMENT AND AWARDS

All modules of the programme are assessed to evaluate participants' achievement of the module learning outcomes. Participants who successfully complete assessments are awarded a Certificate of Completion, indicating the number of training hours and the modules studied. Participants who have studied and were successfully assessed on individual units of the course will receive a certificate of successful completion of the specific module(s) completed.

Participants are required to meet the minimum requirement of 65% attendance of the course components they have enrolled in, to be eligible for receiving the Certificate of Completion.

DIFC Courts registration for Emirati nationals:
Emirati Advocates who completed the full course and related assessments and obtained the DIFC Laws Certificate of Completion, may be eligible to register with the DIFC Courts. For further information and registration requirements, please refer to the DIFC Courts website:
